

Project Laboratories.

- Pre-final and final year students avail all facilities to do mini and major project in the project lab.
- Basic and advanced equipment are provided to the students to do their project successfully.
- Students are encouraged to utilize the laboratory for developing their project works/products round the clock.
- Domain specific faculty members and technical staffs are available beyond the working hours to support students for doing project work.

K.RAMAKRISHNAN COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

(Approved by AICTE & Affiliated to Anna University) Tiruchirappalli – 621 112
Accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade- ISO 9001: 2015 Certified Institution

- Project laboratory is equipped with educational tools to create interest and better understanding of knowledge of mechanical domain.
- Students are encouraged to do project work and to develop the laboratory skills with the support of the facilities available in the department such as Advanced welding lab and SAE lab.
- Reference books, journals and technical magazines are made available to students for to enhance the project skills and report writing.
- Testing facilities and tools with evaluation board and necessary hardware items are available in the laboratory to complete the project work according to the international standards.
- Previous batches working models/ projects and projects reports are available in the laboratory.

